Abena Benefits

At Abena we care about our social and environmental responsibility. We support the UNGC and we comply with the 10 principles. Once a year we complete a status report, Communication on Progress (COP), which is published on the UNGC homepage; www.unglobalcompact.org.

Abena is proactively suggesting and strongly recommending to suppliers and business partners alike that they should comply with, and participate in, the 10 UNGC principles. We encourage our internal and external customers to participate in the initiative in order to make it an all encompassing success.
